THE REAPER AND THE FLOWERS.

There is a reaper, whose name is Death,
And, with his sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath,
And the flowers that grow between.

"Shall I have nought that is fair?" saith he,
"Have nought but the bearded grain?
Tho' the breath of those flowers is sweet to me,
I will give them all back again."

He gazed at the flowers with tearful eyes;
He kissed their drooping leaves;
It was for the Lord of Paradise
He bound them in his sheaves.

"My Lord hath need of these flowerets gay,"
The reaper said, and smiled;
"Dear tokens of the earth are they,
Where he was once a child."

"They shall all bloom in fields of light,
Transplanted by my care,
And saints, upon their garments white,
These sacred blossoms wear."

And the mother gave, in tears and pain,
The flowers she most did love;
She knew she would find them all again,
In the fields of light, above.

Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The reaper came that day;
'Twas an angel visited the green earth
And took the flowers away.

Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,

The reaper came that day;

'Twas an angel visited the green earth
And took the flowers away.

PENCIL SKETCHES OF TRAVEL.

Lotter VI.

Clarkstown, Rockland County, New York, Aug. 8th, 1846.

MY DEAR JACKSON:—We arose early yesterday morning, and after taking breakfast, started for New City, about ten miles North of Tappan. The road is very crooked, and in some places, exceedingly bad, but as a general thing, it is in good condition, and passes through the most beautiful country I ever saw.

I was always aware that there was a great deal of romance in my make, but I never before imagined that I was half so much of a fancy character as is the case; I was lost to everything save the enchanting scenery around me.

The road is very circuitous, so that it seemed to me as if we were winding around the same spot, without any prospect of finding the end, and I must confess that I had no desire for the termination; and had I been fixed precisely to my mind, heaven only knows when I should preambulate the streets of old Newport again,—certainly not before winter.

For a long distance, we had a mountain, a branch of the Catskill, about a thousand feet above us, directly on our right, thickly covered with trees and shrubbery of various kinds,—while on the left were gorgeous hills, and sequestered valleys, all fresh and green, inviting us to their calm retreats.

The houses, like those I have before mentioned, are built after the Dutch fashion, and some of them are very handsome, in their way, although their appearance was most singular to my eye.

The great mass of people in Rockland County are extremely ignorant, although, of course, there are some exceptions; but as a general thing, they are more ignorant than any people among whom I have ever before been,—notwithstanding all this, however, they have some predominating characteristics, which I shall notice directly, which cannot be surpassed. There is no newspaper published in the county, and but very few are taken by the inhabitants from any other place; no wonder that they are brooding in darkness. Neither is there a Bank in Rockland County, and all the money the people get into their possession, they salt down as carefully as our farmers would their pork in the autumn; and it is never put in circulation again, unless the most dire necessity requires it.

About six miles from Tappan, we came to another of those Hotels which are so famous in this part of the State. It is kept by Tom Warner, and he is a very clever fellow. Famous dances are regularly held here, somewhat after the style of those at "The Jug," but probably not quite so much on the regular Dutch breakdown system.—Friend Tom administered to our immediate and future necessities, and we again went on our way rejoicing. We drove quietly along, noticing everything on the road, and wishing to make long pauses, but my business would not permit, until we reached New City, the County Town. This is about forty miles from the city of New York; and is a small village, containing but few houses. Its situation and general appearance I did not admire, and, in fact, I was at a loss to conceive how any one could endure existence there, so dull, stupid and inanimate was every thing around, without any pleasing scenery to render it interesting. The Court House and Jail are there, together with the County Clerk's office. They had but two men confined in prison, one for stabbing and the other for stealing. The Jailor complained of hard times, and told me that if his business did not improve soon, he should have to seek other employment. There is one Hotel in the place, which is kept by an individual who appeared to be known only by the familiar cognomen of "Billy," so I called him "Billy," and he called me Squire; and before I left, he told me all about his affairs for the last thirty years or more, and made me his confidential friend, so I shall not reveal anything that he intended me to keep secret. No licenses are now granted in the State of New York, and the country tavern keepers complain most bitterly, as the sale of liquor was very profitable, and, as they say, the only means of sustaining their houses. So, for the purpose of hearing the people in this movement, these persons have agreed not to make any effort to accommodate travellers, and even refuse to provide anything for them to eat; and, in this way, they intend to obtain licenses again, and if those who are allowed to vote on the question, will only make a tour through the Northern Counties of the State, previous to the next election, I will guarantee that they will be in favor of licenses. It has been with the greatest possible difficulty that we have been able to get anything to eat since we left the city.

Yours always,

FLORIO.

"Mother," said a little boy of our acquaintance, the other day, "I've got such a bad headache, and sore throat, too."

"Have you, my dear?" asked the mother; "well, you shall have some medicine."

"It's no matter," retorted the shrewd urchin; "I've got 'em—but they don't hurt me!"

NEW STEAMBOAT.—Capt. William H. Townsend, formerly of the Steamer John W. Richmond, who is well and favorably known on this route, is making an effort to have the stock of a new opposition Steamboat taken up, which will run on the outside route between New York and Providence. If he succeeds in his undertaking, she will be a permanent boat to run through the year, and the arrangements of the stock will be such that she cannot be bought off. This will be of great benefit to Newport people, and our citizens ought certainly to embark in the enterprise. Capt. Townsend has met with very good success, thus far.

The Brooklyn Eagle of Tuesday says: Yesterday morning the City Guards visited Newport, and dined at the Ocean House. They speak in high terms of the attentions they received in Newport; and particularly from the Newport Artillery, who, although ignorant of their visit until they arrived at the wharf, turned out with pretty full ranks, and gave them an escort to the boat, on their return to Providence.

The small pox is very prevalent in Hartford.

The New York Tribune says, by a law passed at the late Session, all Collectors and Custom House Officers will be required to pay over their fees (hitherto distributed among the several officers) into the Treasury of the United States. The same act requires that an officer serving less than a year shall be paid only for the time serving. Hitherto the Collector has secured his salary for the year from his fees, and at once. Hereafter it will be paid quarterly. These are salutary changes.

The Hours.—All the chances for this valuable picture are not yet disposed of; those who would like to possess it, cannot do better than invest ten dollars in this way, and every one stands a chance of being the fortunate one.

Mr. Du Salle, editor of the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times, has at last arrived home from Europe. He has been fifty-two days coming, and much anxiety was felt for his safety.

UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.—We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the United States Clothing Store, in another column. This store is most amply filled with a large assortment of clothing of every description, to furnish a man from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet. And what is more, goods are sold very cheap at this establishment, so there is no excuse now for going ragged. Besides furnishing you with clothing, they will also furnish you with Patent Portable shower baths, of a superior manufacture, which they sell very low. These baths are very simple in construction, and any one can use them without the slightest difficulty. All connected with this establishment are polite, and ever ready to wait on their customers.

STRANGE DISEASE.—The Rockville (Md) Journal says: "There is a singular disease prevailing among the colored people of this neighborhood. We have heard of several lately, who have been taken very suddenly, without any previous indication of its approach. We have heard of no white person being attacked. The disease is said to be something similar to a fit."

FIRE WORKS.—If pleasant this evening, Messrs. Bliven & Peck, of Ocean Cottage, will have a brilliant display of Fire Works at their Cottage on the Beach. A walk to the beach on a pleasant evening, together with a glass of Messrs. B. & P.'s Ice Cream, is delightful.

The steamer Perry makes another grand excursion to Fall River this afternoon, thus affording a fine opportunity for those who wish to take a pleasant sail up the Narragansett Bay to do so.

A WOMAN KILLED BY HER HUSBAND AT HER OWN REQUEST.—This following extraordinary case occurred a short time since in Wurtemburgh, and is related in a foreign journal:

Adam Gayring, a man sixty-four years of age, of honest and upright dealings, loved and respected by all who knew him, presented himself on the 8th ult., before the authorities at Heidenheim, and stated calmly that he had just killed his wife. His declaration was immediately taken, as follows:—"My wife," he said, "as every one knows, has been suffering for a long time from illness, and at times the pains she had to endure were such as to affect her reason; she latterly gave up all hopes of recovery, and continually repeated that not only was life a torment to her, but that she feared that if I died before her, she would be reduced to misery. This morning, after we had read together the 4th chapter of the Book of Judges, (they were devout people and read the Bible every day,) she requested me to drive a nail into her temple, as Jael did to Sisera, as such a death seemed to her short and easy, and would put an end to her sufferings; she said she forgave me before hand for the act, of which she absolved me before God and man. A nail, she said, would not cause a great hemorrhage, and would make but a slight wound. "As soon as I am dead," she added, "you can close the wound, put on a clean cap, and no one will know anything at all about it." After long resistance (continued Gayring) I gave way to the wishes of my wife. I took a nail and began to drive it into her left temple with a hammer, but the nail was too weak, and the point, instead of entering, flattened itself on the bone. I then took a small drill, but was equally unsuccessful. My wife grew impatient, and requested me to kill her at once with the hammer, which I accordingly did, by knocking in the skull. The body of my wife is at my house, where you can examine it at your leisure."

The magistrate immediately proceeded to the house with a medical man, and Gayring under a strong guard. They found the body dressed, upon the bed. On the left temple there were two wounds, and the right side of the skull was knocked in as low down as the temple. Beside the bed was a table, on which was a bible, the nail, drill, and hammer alluded to. On the ground was a basin of water, in which the murderer, according to his own declaration, washed his hands before presenting himself to the authorities.

Gayring is now in prison; he is perfectly calm, and convinced that he acted well in fulfilling the wishes of his wife by putting an end to her sufferings.

The envious man is made gloomy not only by his own gloom, but by another man's sunshine. He that shortens the road to knowledge lengthens life. A wise man's mind is like the state of the world above the moon, ever serene.

The Lynn News says some of the Lynn girls were anxious to have the young men drafted, because they would learn to present arms, and salute.

Ex-Governor Hubbard of N. Hampshire, it is said, has been appointed Sub-Treasurer for Boston.

A deceased Irish Judge is reported to have said, when addressing a prisoner convicted of murder, "You are to be hanged, and I hope it will be a warning to you."

The stone, says the New Orleans Picayune, with which San Juan d'Ulloa is built, was obtained from quarries among the Highlands on the Hudson.

NORTH CAROLINA.—The Philadelphia North American says that letters have been received by members of Congress from North Carolina, which render it certain that Gov. Graham had been re-elected by from 8 to 9000 majority, and that the Whigs have the Legislature by some 20 majority on joint ballot. This will give the Whigs two United States Senators.

"Boss, I want twenty-five cents,"
"Twenty-five cents!!! How soon do you want it, Jake?"
"Next Tuesday."
"As soon as that? You can't have it. I have told you often that when you was in want of so large a sum of money, you must give me at least four week's notice."

"I say, Mister," said a little urchin to a man with a pair of cross-eyes, "wain't you born in the middle of the week?"
"No, you little devil, why do you ask me that?"
"Cause I didn't know but what you might have been, seeing that you are all the time looking both ways for Sunday."

A young man stepped into a book store and asked for "A Young Man's Companion."
"Well sir," replied the bookseller "here's my daughter."

THE FEMALE EYE.—It glares, invites, defies, denies, consents. It has the glance of love, the flash of rage, the sparkling of hope, the squint of suspicion, the fire of jealousy and the lustre of pleasure.

It is stated that Morrison expended between the years 1830 and 1844, the enormous sum of £108,000 sterling, in advertising his pills.

An Irishman going to market met a farmer with an owl. "Say, mister, what'll yer take fur yer big-eyed turkey?" "Tis an owl," replied the astonished farmer. "Never a drap do I care whether it's old or young; price the bird."

He that would pass the latter part of his life with honor and decency, must when he is young, consider that he, one day shall be old, and remember when he is old that he has once been young.

Berlioz, the composer, lately gave a concert in Paris. In his orchestra there were only three hundred and fifty performers! We wonder they did not blow the roofs off the houses.

REVERENCE FOR AGE.—Reverence is always due to aged people. God, Nature, and a proper education, say to the young, "Reverence old age." Grey hairs are a crown of glory, when found in the way of righteousness.

The dim eye,
The furrowed brow, the temples thinly clad,
The wasted page of man's infirm decline,
Awake that deep respect—not always traced
Mid those whose science nurtures, whom the arts
Of smooth refinement polish—and a voice
Sublime instructs, "Honor the head that bears
The hoary crown of age."

TOMATOES.—Chickens will fatten on tomatoes. If your neighbors have tomatoes in their gardens now is the time to turn out your poultry. They will help themselves.

BEECHWOOD TO IMITATE MAHOGANY.—Dissolve 2 oz. of dragon's blood and 1 oz. of aloes in 1 quart of rectified spirit of wine, and apply it to the surface of the wood previously well polished.

The Brooklyn Guards of N. Y. arrived home on Tuesday "safe and sound."

Owing to previous arrangement Manchester & brother will be under the necessity of closing their Daguerreotype Rooms, corner of Thames and Mary-sts., Newport, within a short time, (probably eight or ten days,) therefore would say to the good people of this place who wish to present their friends with an invaluable memento, that they can never do better than to give us a call soon. Young lady, bring in that venerable father and that watchful mother, and secure a good likeness to-day, for to-morrow it may be too late. Mothers, bring in those little ones with curling hair and sparkling eyes; they will make pretty pictures, and then, should they be taken from you, you can exclaim, in the language of the poet:—
"Gone to their rest, yet we would not recall them
Back to this region of sorrow and pain;
Gone to their rest where no ill can befall them—
Yet we have their likenesses both perfect and plain."

EXCURSION.

LORRAINE'S PILLS.

All persons require Facts.

DR. LORRAINE'S CURATIVE SYSTEM
OF MEDICINE is rapidly producing achievements never before known in the cure of diseases. The immensity of its wonderful results, alone demonstrate that its principles must be founded on truth. The relative proportion of Cures by this Medicine is out of all proportion greater, than by any other Medicine known.

THE THEORY is, that one blood beats in the system, and flows through the body of every man, and must be pure, it is the Vital Principle that sustains life.

Physicians, and people of every class are willing to come forward and announce, in the most public manner that they have been cured of long standing complaints—after another medicine had failed. In fact there can be no doubt but that Lorraine's vegetable Pill is the best medicine ever offered to the public.

See a few public statements of men of truth and virtue.

Lynn, Dec. 17th, 1813.

Sir: I have sold all the pills I last had of you, please send another lot immediately. The sale of Lorraine's vegetable Pill is rapidly on the increase, they are becoming very popular. I sell more and more every day. As a curative medicine and purifier of the blood, I think they stand unrivalled. One fact I have noticed, that no one that has used them finds any fault with them; they have wrought some very great cures. One lady, who has been confined to the house and bed, a great part of the time, for twenty years, is now cured and able to work most of her time, after having taken 3 boxes only of Lorraine's Pills! I might name many other cases where the cures have been as great, but have not time. Yours respectfully,

J. E. P. MARSH.

Portland, Me., Nov. 7th, 1813.

Sir: Please send us one gross of Lorraine's Pills, we have sold all we had last. They have given very good satisfaction, better than any other pills which we have in our market. I think in a short time they will take the place of others. We have had no fault found with them whatever; but, on the contrary, they have been praised loudly. I think we could have quite a number of highly respectable certificates from our citizens. Yours respectfully,

E. MASON.

Chelsea, Jan. 3d, 1814.

Sir: I transmit to you an account of my case for publication, believing it to be my duty. I have been confined with the Rheumatism nearly the whole winter, have had some of the best physicians of Boston and could get nothing that would relieve me more than temporarily. I heard of the wonderful virtue of Lorraine's Pills, I had no faith whatever, but I took them, and it is a solemn fact that when I had taken but eight pills, my Rheumatism had entirely left me, and I have remained well ever since.

N. B. I never took more than one pill at a time and that on going to bed.

Yours respectfully, W. M. HALSTAL.

OPINION OF A SKILFUL PHYSICIAN.
Sir, the operation of Lorraine's Pills is past any philosophy to find out, how so small a Pill can produce such wonderful effects. I find that one of them will operate more than 3 or 4 of any other Pill, yet in their operation, mild, gentle and comforting. On this account, they are more than 100 percent, cheaper, as physic, than any other Medicine I know of.

These Pills are now acknowledged by thousands who take them daily, to be the only medicine that fairly takes the Banner from all others. This extraordinary medicine has actually done wonders within one year past. They cause no pain or uneasiness of any kind in their operation, and require neither change of diet or care of any kind.

The attention of the reader is respectfully called to the important results from the use of these Pills. It will be seen, however great achievements have heretofore been made by the use of this invaluable medicine, still greater and more remarkable cures daily happen.

CORNS!

MADAM BERNARD, Corn Doctor, (from Paris) politely announces her arrival from N. York, to this citizens and visitors of Newport, and will feel obliged to those who will honor her with a call, at Mr. ELISHA S. KENYON'S, corner of Thames and Young-streets the honor to inform the public that, by a new and peculiar method, she extracts Hard and Soft Corns, Bunions, Callosities, &c., Without Cutting.

Madam B. does not attempt to offer a nostrum, requiring secrecy or faith to require its efficacy, but confidently assuring those who may suffer from troublesome and painful Corns, that they may have the satisfaction of carrying away their tormentor, their Corn, in their hands.

Madam B. has been practising in the U. States for six years, and in that time she has received testimonials from some of the most eminent ladies and gentlemen, as to the benefit and comfort which they have received since their feet have been attended to by her. The operation will not occupy more than 10 minutes, and the relief is so instantaneous that persons thus treated can put on their shoes and walk without the least inconvenience.

Madam B. has practised her profession for several years in Boston, New York, Germany, France, and England, and has acquired much skill, and great practical experience—a fact attested by numerous certificates from the most celebrated physicians both of Europe and America, as well as from the nobility and gentry of those countries, delivered to her after four months' cure.

Ladies and gentlemen will be waited upon at their residence.

Ladies and gentlemen who wish Madam B's services, are invited to call as soon as possible. Madam B. has in her possession upwards of 1,500 certificates.

From the Philadelphia Enquirer and Courier

RELIEF TO THE AFFLICTED.—We allude a few days since to the remarkable, efficacious and painless method adopted by Madam Bernard, of 450 Broadway, N. Y. and 151 Court street, Boston, in extracting Corns and curing troublesome Tumors of the feet. We are now induced to refer again to the subject, partly in consequence of more than one friend having called upon us to record their testimony as to the sudden and entire relief they have experienced from the operation of Professor; and chiefly because so many persons are in the habit of advertising remedies for Corns, &c., which are mere empiricism and pretence. The parties who are now in our office, and who have been under the treatment of Madam Bernard, assures us that they did not experience the slightest pain during the process of extraction, and that it was accomplished with an almost magical celerity. We observe also that some of the most eminent Physicians, both of Boston and New York, as well as of this city, have given testimonials to the above effect to Madam Bernard, the writers having experienced a relief from Corns, which had pained them for years. From the Boston Atlas.

Madam Bernard, at 151 Court street, is said by those who have experienced relief at her hands, to effect a radical cure of the most inveterate corns. There is said to be no mistake about it. It is a great discovery, and we recommend all the afflicted to try.

From the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.

A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY residing in W. street in this city, has received great and unexpected benefit from the use of that excellent specific RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP. Some few weeks since she was on a visit to some of her relatives in South New Jersey, where she was very severely bitten by mosquitoes, being at the same time very much exposed to the scorching rays of the Sun, she experienced great pain, and irritation from the effects of the mosquitoes, and much annoyance from the unnatural darkness of her tanned complexion. We recommended her to use that excellent Medicated Compound, RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP, she complied with our request, and in three days there was not a single spot, blemish, pimple or blotch left upon her skin, and her complexion is now as fair as the Lily.

Ladies, secure without delay a cake of this estimable Soap, it will purify your skin, improve your complexion and remove all disfigurements entirely from the surface of your system. Price 12-12 cents per cake. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent.
